In spite of repeated opportunities being granted since December 18, 2017 counsel representing the Union of India has not been able to tell this Court as to when and by what time the decision with regard to implementing the Low Density Residential Area Policy would be notified and brought into force. We direct the Secretary, Ministry of Urban Development,

Government of India to file an affidavit within two weeks indicating as to by what time the said policy would be notified and brought into force after its review.
